Islam and Muslims are in the news for all the wrong reasons. International and domestic terrorism, the European refugee crisis, calls for a ban on Muslim immigration, controversy over halal food and the building of mosques, and the rise of far right political parties in response to Islamisation are just a few of the issues. What is going on with Islam and how should we respond to it from a Christian perspective? Dr Bernie Power will be addressing these topics and answering your questions about Islam and Muslims.
